Report on Compliance for Each Major Federal Program

We have audited PHA NAME's compliance with the types of compliance requirements described in the OMB Compliance Supplement that could have a direct and material effect on each of PHA NAME's major federal programs for the year ended [Year End]. PHA NAME's major federal programs are identified in the summary of auditor's results section of the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs.

Management's Responsibility

Management is responsible for compliance with federal statutes, regulations, and the terms and conditions of its federal awards applicable to its federal programs.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on compliance for each of PHA NAME's major federal programs based on our audit of the types of compliance requirements referred to above. We conducted our audit of compliance in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America; the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States; and the audit requirements of Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards (Uniform Guidance). Those standards and the Uniform Guidance require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether noncompliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on a major federal program occurred. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence about PHA NAME's compliance with those requirements and performing such other procedures as we consider necessary in the circumstances.

We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion on compliance for each major federal program. However, our audit does not provide a legal determination of PHA NAME's compliance.

Opinion on Each Major Federal Program

In our opinion, PHA NAME complied, in all material respects, with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on each of its major federal programs for the year ended [Year End].

[Other Matters (Include only if other non-material findings are present)]

The results of our auditing procedures disclosed instances of noncompliance, which are required to be reported in accordance with the Uniform Guidance and which are described in the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs as items (List finding reference numbers, for example 20XX-X and 20XX-X). Our opinion on each major federal program is not modified with respect to these matters.

PHA NAME's response to the noncompliance findings identified in our audit are described in the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs. PHA NAME's response was not subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of compliance and, accordingly, we express no opinion on the response.]

Report on Internal Control Over Compliance

Management of PHA NAME is responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal control over compliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above. In planning and performing our audit of compliance, we considered PHA NAME's internal control over compliance with the types of requirements that could have a direct and material effect on each major federal program to determine the auditing procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing an opinion on compliance for each major federal program and to test and report on internal control over compliance in accordance with the Uniform Guidance, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control over compliance. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of PHA NAME's internal control over compliance.

A deficiency in internal control over compliance exists when the design or operation of a control over compliance does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program on a timely basis. A material weakness in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance, such that there is a reasonable possibility that material noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A significant deficiency in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program that is less severe than a material weakness in internal control over compliance, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control over compliance was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over compliance that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control over compliance that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

The purpose of this report on internal control over compliance is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over compliance and the results of that testing based on the requirements of the Uniform Guidance. Accordingly, this report is not suitable for any other purpose.

Report on Compliance for Each Major Federal Program

We have audited PHA NAME's compliance with the types of compliance requirements described in the OMB Compliance Supplement that could have a direct and material effect on each of PHA NAME's major federal programs for the year ended [Year End]. PHA NAME's major federal programs are identified in the summary of auditor's results section of the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs.

Management's Responsibility

Management is responsible for compliance with federal statutes, regulations, and the terms and conditions of its federal awards applicable to its federal programs.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on compliance for each of PHA NAME's major federal programs based on our audit of the types of compliance requirements referred to above. We conducted our audit of compliance in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America; the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States; and the audit requirements of Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards (Uniform Guidance). Those standards and the Uniform Guidance require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether noncompliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on a major federal program occurred. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence about PHA NAME's compliance with those requirements and performing such other procedures as we consider necessary in the circumstances.

We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion on compliance for each major federal program. However, our audit does not provide a legal determination of PHA NAME's compliance.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

As described in the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs, PHA NAME did not comply with requirements regarding [identify the major federal program(s) and associated finding number(s) matched to the type(s) of compliance requirements]. Compliance with such requirements is necessary, in our opinion, for PHA NAME to comply with requirements applicable to that (those) program(s).

Qualified Opinion

In our opinion, except for the noncompliance described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraph, PHA NAME complied, in all material respects, with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on [identify the major federal program] for the year ended [Year End].

[Other Matters (Include only if other non-material findings are present)]

The results of our auditing procedures disclosed instances of noncompliance, which are required to be reported in accordance with the Uniform Guidance and which are described in the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs as items (List finding reference numbers, for example 20XX-X and 20XX-X). Our opinion on each major federal program is not modified with respect to these matters.

PHA NAME's response to the noncompliance findings identified in our audit are described in the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs. PHA NAME's response was not subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of compliance and, accordingly, we express no opinion on the response.]

Report on Internal Control Over Compliance

Management of PHA NAME is responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal control over compliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above. In planning and performing our audit of compliance, we considered PHA NAME's internal control over compliance with the types of requirements that could have a direct and material effect on each major federal program to determine the auditing procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing an opinion on compliance for each major federal program and to test and report on internal control over compliance in accordance with the Uniform Guidance, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control over compliance. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of PHA NAME's internal control over compliance.

Our consideration of internal control over compliance was for the limited purpose described in the preceding paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over compliance that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies and therefore, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that were not identified. However, as discussed below, we identified certain deficiencies in internal control over compliance that we consider to be material weaknesses and significant deficiencies.

A deficiency in internal control over compliance exists when the design or operation of a control over compliance does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program on a timely basis. A material weakness in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance, such that there is a reasonable possibility that material noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. We consider the deficiencies in internal control over compliance described in the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs as items (List finding reference numbers, for example, 20XX-X and 20XX-X) to be material weaknesses.

A significant deficiency in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program that is less severe than a material weakness in internal control over compliance, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance. We consider the deficiencies in internal control over compliance described in the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs as items (List finding reference numbers, for example, 20XX-X and 20XX-X) to be significant deficiencies.

PHA NAME's response to the internal control over compliance findings identified in our audit are described in the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs. PHA NAME's response was not subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of compliance and, accordingly, we express no opinion on the response.

The purpose of this report on internal control over compliance is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over compliance and the results of that testing based on the requirements of the Uniform Guidance. Accordingly, this report is not suitable for any other purpose.

Our consideration of internal control over compliance was for the limited purpose described in the preceding paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over compliance that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies and therefore, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that were not identified. However, as discussed below, we identified certain deficiencies in internal control over compliance that we consider to be material weaknesses.

A deficiency in internal control over compliance exists when the design or operation of a control over compliance does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program on a timely basis. A material weakness in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance, such that there is a reasonable possibility that material noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A significant deficiency in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program that is less severe than a material weakness in internal control over compliance, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance. We consider the deficiencies in internal control over compliance described in the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs as items (List finding reference numbers, for example, 20XX-X and 20XX-X) to be material weaknesses.

PHA NAME's response to the internal control over compliance findings identified in our audit are described in the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs. PHA NAME's response was not subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of compliance and, accordingly, we express no opinion on the response.

The purpose of this report on internal control over compliance is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over compliance and the results of that testing based on the requirements of the Uniform Guidance. Accordingly, this report is not suitable for any other purpose.

Report on Compliance for Each Major Federal Program

We have audited PHA NAME's compliance with the types of compliance requirements described in the OMB Compliance Supplement that could have a direct and material effect on each of PHA NAME's major federal programs for the year ended [Year End]. PHA NAME's major federal programs are identified in the summary of auditor's results section of the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs.

Management's Responsibility

Management is responsible for compliance with federal statutes, regulations, and the terms and conditions of its federal awards applicable to its federal programs.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on compliance for each of PHA NAME's major federal programs based on our audit of the types of compliance requirements referred to above. We conducted our audit of compliance in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America; the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States; and the audit requirements of Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards (Uniform Guidance). Because of the matter described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion paragraph, however, we were not able to obtain (sufficient appropriate audit evidence to provide) (documentation supporting) a basis for an opinion on compliance.

Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion

As described in the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs, we were unable to obtain (sufficient appropriate audit evidence about) (documentation supporting) the compliance of PHA NAME with [identify the major federal programs] regarding [identify type(s) of compliance requirements], nor were we able to satisfy ourselves as to PHA NAME compliance with those requirements by other auditing procedures.

Disclaimer of Opinion

Because of the significance of the matter described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion paragraph, we have not been able to obtain (sufficient appropriate audit evidence to provide) (documentation supporting) a basis for an opinion on compliance. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on PHA NAME's compliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above.

Report on Internal Control Over Compliance

Management of PHA NAME is responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal control over compliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above. In planning and performing our audit of compliance, we considered PHA NAME's internal control over compliance with the types of requirements that could have a direct and material effect on each major federal program to determine the auditing procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing an opinion on compliance for each major federal program and to test and report on internal control over compliance in accordance with the Uniform Guidance, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control over compliance. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of PHA NAME's internal control over compliance.

Our consideration of internal control over compliance was for the limited purpose described in the preceding paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over compliance that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies and therefore, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that were not identified. However, as discussed below, we identified certain deficiencies in internal control over compliance that we consider to be material weaknesses.

A deficiency in internal control over compliance exists when the design or operation of a control over compliance does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program on a timely basis. A material weakness in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance, such that there is a reasonable possibility that material noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A significant deficiency in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program that is less severe than a material weakness in internal control over compliance, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance. We consider the deficiencies in internal control over compliance described in the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs as items (List finding reference numbers, for example, 20XX-X and 20XX-X) to be material weaknesses.

PHA NAME's response to the internal control over compliance findings identified in our audit are described in the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs. PHA NAME's response was not subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of compliance and, accordingly, we express no opinion on the response.

The purpose of this report on internal control over compliance is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over compliance and the results of that testing based on the requirements of the Uniform Guidance. Accordingly, this report is not suitable for any other purpose.

Report on Compliance for Each Major Federal Program

We have audited PHA NAME's compliance with the types of compliance requirements described in the OMB Compliance Supplement that could have a direct and material effect on each of PHA NAME's major federal programs for the year ended [Year End]. PHA NAME's major federal programs are identified in the summary of auditor's results section of the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs.

Management's Responsibility

Management is responsible for compliance with federal statutes, regulations, and the terms and conditions of its federal awards applicable to its federal programs.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on compliance for each of PHA NAME's major federal programs based on our audit of the types of compliance requirements referred to above. We conducted our audit of compliance in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America; the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States; and the audit requirements of Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards (Uniform Guidance). Those standards and the Uniform Guidance require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether noncompliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on a major federal program occurred. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence about PHA NAME's compliance with those requirements and performing such other procedures as we consider necessary in the circumstances.

We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion on compliance for each major federal program. However, our audit does not provide a legal determination of PHA NAME's compliance.

Basis for Adverse Opinion

As described in the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs, PHA NAME did not comply with requirements regarding [identify the major federal program(s) and associated finding number(s) matched to the type(s) of compliance requirements]. Compliance with such requirements is necessary, in our opinion, for PHA NAME to comply with requirements applicable to that (those) program(s).

Adverse Opinion

In our opinion, because of the significance of the matter discussed in the Basis for Adverse Opinion paragraph, PHA NAME did not comply, in all material respects, with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on its [identify the major federal program(s)] for the year ended [Year End].

Other Matters

PHA NAME's response to the noncompliance findings identified in our audit are described in the accompanying schedule of findings, questioned costs, and recommendations. PHA NAME's response was not subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of compliance and, accordingly, we express no opinion on the response.

We noted certain matters that we are required to report to the management of PHA NAME in a separate communication. These matters are described in our management letter dated (date of letter). [Only include this paragraph if Management Letter is present]

Report on Internal Control Over Compliance

Our consideration of internal control over compliance was for the limited purpose described in the preceding paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over compliance that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies and therefore, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that were not identified. However, as discussed below, we identified certain deficiencies in internal control over compliance that we consider to be material weaknesses and significant deficiencies.

A deficiency in internal control over compliance exists when the design or operation of a control over compliance does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, noncompliance with a compliance requirement of a HUD program on a timely basis. A material weakness in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance, such that there is a reasonable possibility that material noncompliance with a compliance requirement of a HUD program will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. We consider the deficiencies in internal control over compliance described in the accompanying schedule of findings, questioned costs, and recommendations as items (List finding reference numbers, for example, 20XX-X and 20XX-X) to be material weaknesses.

A significant deficiency in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance with a compliance requirement of a HUD program that is less severe than a material weakness in internal control over compliance, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance. We consider the deficiencies in internal control over compliance described in the accompanying schedule of findings, questioned costs, and recommendations as items (List finding reference numbers, for example, 20XX-X and 20XX-X) to be significant deficiencies.

PHA NAME's response to the internal control over compliance findings identified in our audit are described in the accompanying schedule of findings, questioned costs, and recommendations. PHA NAME's response was not subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of compliance and, accordingly, we express no opinion on the response.

The purpose of this report on internal control over compliance is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over compliance and the results of that testing based on the requirements of the Guide. Accordingly, this report is not suitable for any other purpose.

Report on Compliance for Each Major Federal Program

We have audited PHA NAME's compliance with the types of compliance requirements described in the OMB Compliance Supplement that could have a direct and material effect on each of PHA NAME's major federal programs for the year ended [Year End]. PHA NAME's major federal programs are identified in the summary of auditor's results section of the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs.

Management's Responsibility

Management is responsible for compliance with federal statutes, regulations, and the terms and conditions of its federal awards applicable to its federal programs.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on compliance for each of PHA NAME's major federal programs based on our audit of the types of compliance requirements referred to above. We conducted our audit of compliance in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America; the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States; and the audit requirements of Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards (Uniform Guidance). Those standards and the Uniform Guidance require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether noncompliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on a major federal program occurred. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence about PHA NAME's compliance with those requirements and performing such other procedures as we consider necessary in the circumstances.

We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion on compliance for each major federal program. However, our audit does not provide a legal determination of PHA NAME's compliance.

Basis for Adverse Opinion on [Identify Major Federal Program]

As described in the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs, PHA NAME did not comply with requirements regarding [identify the major federal program(s) and associated finding number(s) matched to the type(s) of compliance requirements]. Compliance with such requirements is necessary, in our opinion, for PHA NAME to comply with requirements applicable to that (those) program(s).

Adverse Opinion on [Identify Major Federal Program]

In our opinion, because of the significance of the matter discussed in the Basis for Adverse Opinion paragraph, PHA NAME did not comply, in all material respects, with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on its [identify the major federal program(s)] for the year ended [Year End].

Unmodified Opinion on Each of the Other Major Federal Programs

In our opinion, PHA NAME complied, in all material respects, with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on each of its other major federal programs identified in the summary of auditor's results section of the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs for the year ended [Year End].

[Other Matters (Include only if other non-material findings are present)]

The results of our auditing procedures disclosed instances of noncompliance, which are required to be reported in accordance with the Uniform Guidance and which are described in the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs as items (List finding reference numbers, for example 20XX-X and 20XX-X). Our opinion on each major federal program is not modified with respect to these matters.

PHA NAME's response to the noncompliance findings identified in our audit are described in the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs. PHA NAME's response was not subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of compliance and, accordingly, we express no opinion on the response.]

Report on Internal Control Over Compliance

Our consideration of internal control over compliance was for the limited purpose described in the preceding paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over compliance that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies and therefore, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that were not identified. However, as discussed below, we identified certain deficiencies in internal control over compliance that we consider to be material weaknesses and significant deficiencies.

A deficiency in internal control over compliance exists when the design or operation of a control over compliance does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program on a timely basis. A material weakness in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance, such that there is a reasonable possibility that material noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. We consider the deficiencies in internal control over compliance described in the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs as items (List finding reference numbers, for example, 20XX-X and 20XX-X) to be material weaknesses.

A significant deficiency in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program that is less severe than a material weakness in internal control over compliance, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance. We consider the deficiencies in internal control over compliance described in the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs as items (List finding reference numbers, for example, 20XX-X and 20XX-X) to be significant deficiencies.

PHA NAME's response to the internal control over compliance findings identified in our audit are described in the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs.
